Skagitonians to Preserve Farmland

Thank you for expressing an interest in volunteering with Skagitonians to Preserve Farmland. SPF is committed to protecting Skagit County's rich agricultural heritage through farmland protection, outreach and education, advocacy and research. We work hard to accomplish these goals but we could not do it without the help of volunteers like you. Please let us know how you would like to get involved by completing this survey and returning it to SPF. We will contact you to discuss your interest and help find the right volunteer opportunity for you. Please send your survey to PO Box 2405, Mount Vernon, WA 98273; or by email to info@skagitonians.org. Questions? Call us at (360) 336-3974.
